

Church Prayers 1. 2. 26

Please pray for:

- Peter Ellis who is now back home. Alyson writes: Thank you for all your prayers and thoughts over the last 4 months. Do continue to pray for Peter and for Alyson and their family.
- Alan Barnes died very peacefully on Wednesday. He was taken into hospital last Sunday evening with severe breathlessness. Sadly, despite the hospital's efforts to help him, after a couple of days of keeping him comfortable and with palliative care he passed away peacefully early on Wednesday morning (28th). Alan was a dearly loved member of our Fellowship and will be greatly missed. Jonathan & Frances write that they had precious time with him in his final hours, so there are no regrets and now he is forever home with his Heavenly Father. Remember Jonathan and Frances in your prayers at this time.
- John Sturgeon: Brenda writes: Please pray for John following his foot surgery, for patience during the initial period of necessary immobility, and for a successful outcome.
- Ruth Wimpess had surgery in Ipswich hospital on 15th January for a change to her pacemaker. Thank God that the operation went well. Continue to pray for her.
- Doreen Holden: Some of you will remember Doreen who attended our Church for many years and also Network. We had the news that she has died after being in care with dementia for a few years. Please pray for her daughter Alison and son Mark and the rest of her family. Her funeral will be at Ipswich Crematorium on 3rd February at 11.45
